Farmers and Merchants.

[Especial to The Times-Dispates].

[CAPRON, VA., October 22.—The cotton crop is damaging dully—so wet that it cannot be harvested. The same is true of the peanuts. Those already dug and shocked are rottening in the shock. Those in the ground will never come out unless hand-picked. The farmers and merchants alike have the "blues" in this county. The credit system prevails here, and when crops fall the farmers fall to pay the merchants. Then the merchant must look out lest he fall.

THANKS CUTICURA FOR COMPLETE CURE

"Some time ago I wrote you for a book on the Cutteura Remedies and received it O. K. and went and bought the Soap Cintment, and Pills. They did the more good than any medicine I ever used. They cured me of my skin disease, broke out in spots all over my buly, and course a continual itching which beauty drove me wild at times. I got medicine of adoctor, but it del not cure me, and when I saw in a paper your ad, I sent to you for the Cuticura book and I studied my case in it. I then went to the drug store and bought one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura Chitment, and one vial of Cuticura Chitment, and one vial of Cuticura Phils. From the first application I received rehef. I used the first set and two extra cakes of Cuticura Soap, and was completely cured. I had suffered for two years, and I again thank Cuticura for my cure. If you wish, you may publish this. Your friend forever, Claude N Johnson, Maple Grove Farm, R. F. D. 2, Weinut Ham, June 15, 1905."

Father Time Tests All Things Victors Are Time Tried

There's a best to everything. In Talking Machines it's the VICTOR. Best in mechanical construction, best in naturalness, best in that broad variety that saves entertainment from becoming a bore.

Father Time long ago tested the VICTORS and passed them along.

These lengthening evenings will find the VICTOR furnishing high-grade entertainment in an endless number of homes in our own country and amid the people of every

What Does This Mean to You?

It ought to mean a VICTOR in YOUR home. A VIC-TOR with its sacred music, its grand opera, its light vau-deville, its folk songs—a VICTOR with the living voices of all the dead and living singers and speakers of note.

The busy man with his problems, the woman with her perplexities, the growing school children with their lessons upon their minds, can all forget their troubles by listening to the matchless VICTOR.

The prices and terms? Yes; they are easy. For $17.00 and upward you can buy a VICTOR. By paying a little each week you can have one placed in your home. Nothing casier. Many styles of VICTORS.

And in the meantime, don't forget the Moses line of
